9 JASON ELLENWOOD,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 M.D. DAVE KENNEY, et al.

13 Defendants.

No. 08-5197FDB/JRC

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

14
15 This 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Civil Rights action has been referred to the undersigned
16 Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 636(b)(1)(A) and 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Magistrate
17 Judges' Rules MJR 1, MJR 3, and MJR 4.

18 Plaintiff was given until March 20, 2009, to provide service copies and service
19 documents. He did not comply with the Court's March 2, 2009, Order (Dkt # 16).

20 For over a year the Court has worked to obtain a servable complaint from plaintiff. This
21 action was filed on March 31, 2008 (Dkt # 1). The proposed complaint was a fifty page
22 document that included a long narrative section in which plaintiff alleges he was accidentally
23 shot in the face at age fifteen. Plaintiff alleges he suffers from mental illness as a result of 24 disfigurement to his face. In the original complaint he describes in detail symptoms of
26

1 depression, including auditory and visual hallucinations which he allegedly experiences (Dkt. #
2 8).

3 Plaintiff claims he is entitled to reconstructive surgery, not for medical reasons, but for
4 his mental health. He contends a prison medical review committee violated his constitutional
5 rights when it denied his request for reconstructive surgery. The original complaint was filed
6 June 5, 2008, after plaintiff cured defects in his application to proceed in forma pauperis (Dkt. #
7 8).

9 On June 5, 2008, the Court ordered plaintiff to amend the complaint as the original
10 complaint named only sub-agencies of the Department of Corrections. The Court also noted the 11 complaint violated Fed. R. Civ. P. 8 (a) as it was a narrative and not a short plain statement of the 12 claim.

13 The Court received a timely first amended complaint naming John and Jane Doe medical 14 personnel who were on the committee that denied plaintiff's request (Dkt # 10). The Court
15 ordered service, even though the defendants were not specifically identified by name (Dkt. # 11).
16 On July 30, 2008, the Washington State Attorney General's Office entered a limited notice of 17 appearance reserving objections regarding sufficiency of service; no person accepted this attempt 18 at service by mail.

19
20 Four months later, on December 1, 2008, the Court entered an Order to Show Cause as 21 plaintiff had taken no steps to serve any party by name and the case was not being prosecuted
22 (Dkt # 14). Plaintiff filed documents with the Court indicating he was attempting to obtain the 23 names of the persons on the committee that denied his request. Plaintiff indicated that he had 24 finally obtained those names (Dkt. # 15, 17, and 18). On January 6, 2009, the Court ordered
25 plaintiff to file an amended complaint that named a proper party (Dkt # 16). Plaintiff complied
26

1 with the Court's order and on February 20, 2009, he filed an amended complaint naming ten
2 persons he alleges denied his request for reconstructive surgery (Dkt # 21).

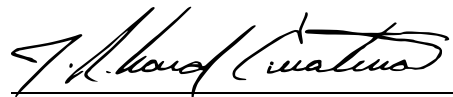

3 Plaintiff provided no service copies and no filled out service forms. On March 2, 2009,
4 nearly one year after this action was originally filed; the Court entered an order directing plaintiff
5 to provide service documents (Dkt. # 22). Plaintiff is no longer incarcerated and he is not relying
6 on prison officials to make copies for him. The Court gave plaintiff two weeks to make copies
7 and provide them to the Court.
8

9 It appears this action is languishing as a result of plaintiff's failure to prosecute and 10 failure to follow a court order. Fed. R. Civ. P. 41 (b) and Local Civil Rule 41 (b) allow a court to 11 dismiss an action for failure to comply with court orders. Local Rule 41 provides in part "[T]he 12 plaintiff in any such action will be given an opportunity to show cause in writing , or at the 13 court's election in open court, why the case should not be dismissed."
14

15 The court now ORDERS plaintiff to SHOW CAUSE why this action should not be 16 dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute and failure to follow a court order. A
17 response is due on or before May 1, 2009.

18 The Clerk's Office is directed to remove the March 20, 2009, due date from the Court
19 calendar and send plaintiff a copy of this order. Further, the May 1, 2009, due date for a 20 response should be noted.
21

22 DATED this 2nd day of April, 2009.
